

NICKERSON
FAMILY HISTORY

FOREWORD.

We are here endeavoring to bring the history of our fore-fathers to the present and future generations of our "Nickerson" family.

There will be mistakes in this work, especially as to names and their spelling, and perhaps dates too, for which I am truly very sorry.

I have been some time collecting this much information of the Nickerson family and there will be more yet to come to our attention later which I hope to add at a later date.

This 400 years of "Salt of the Earth" ancestors shows us our heritage of their tremendous work and sacrifice to face the big world as has been and may we have the same courage and faith to carry on, and be proud to do so.

Eva J.S. Nickerson.

William Nickerson of Norwich, Norfolk Co. England, a weaver by trade, (son of William Nickerson, a tailor by trade, who was baptised at Norwich, Dec. 15, 1571. It is believed that he was the descendant of William Nickerson, Lord Bishop of Derry, Ireland.) sailed to America.

Their four children were with them; Nicholas, Robert, Elizabeth, and Anne, arriving in Boston June 20, 1637. Anne William's wife was the eldest daughter of Nicholas and Bridget (Cocke) Bushby who came to America with them.

William Nickerson settled at Yarmouth. He took the oath of Freedom in Mass. Court, May 2, 1638. In 1674 he bought of the Indians and others, land at Chatham; he conveyed to each of his children (except Nicholas and Elizabeth, who had received her share in 1662) 40 acres of upland and ten acres of meadow, and sold other various holdings. He was nicknamed "Red Stockings" at Chatham.

June 3, 1668 William Nickerson Sr. and William Nickerson Jr. were charged with affronting Thomas Howes, late constable of Yarmouth in his office and were compelled to sit in the stocks ---.

Nicholas Bushby and Bridget Cocke were married June 24, 1595 in church of St Mary, Coslany, Norwich, England.

Nov. 27, 1661 William Nickerson of Boston, a weaver, and Anne, his wife, conveyed to Robert Gibbs, merchant, for the consideration of 150 pounds, their dwelling house in Boston, with yard, garden and orchard which they lately purchased of William Snelling, with the new house thereto built and added.

William Nickerson brought two servants from England with them. William Moulton, age 20 years and Anne Wadd, 15 years old.

NICKERSON "COAT OF ARMS"

William Nickerson, weaver, and emigrant, was born in Norwich, Norfolk Co. England in 1604. He was the son of William Nickerson, tailor who was baptized at Norwich, Dec. 15, 1571. It is believed that he was the descendent of William Nickerson, Lord Bishop of Derry, Ireland, whose "Coat of Arms" is: "Azure two bars ermine, in chief three suns, and is attested as follows: (This writing was found on the back of the original picture in Boston, 1802.) "From the beginning of the settlement of this family in this country, the members thereof have figured prominently in it's commerce and trade during the colonial period, and also asserted their patriotism during the struggle for independence; in Mass. alone we find that 72 of the name of Nickerson served in the army and navy during the Revolution."

April 8, 1637 --- The examination of William Nickerson of Norwich in Norff. weaver aged 33 years and Anne his wife aged 28 years with four children, Nicho, nobartt, Elizabeth, and Anne; are desirous to goe to Bostone in New England ther to Inhabitt."

Nicholas Bushby, also a weaver, accompanied them as they embarked at Ipswich on the ship "John & Dorthy", Wm. Andrews, master, and at Yarmouth on the "Rose", Wm Andrews Jr., master. In those days travel was by sailing ship. They arrived in Boston, June 20, 1647.

In Chatham William Nickerson was nicknamed "RedStocking."

When they arrived in Boston they were met with disappointment, for they found, not a church where they could worship as they desired, but rather a church that was filled with contention.

"Deacon Ebenezer Moss, son of Isaac & Hannah (Royce) Moss, was born in Wallingford, Conn. Aug. 9, 1737. He lived in Harwinton, removed thence to East Dorset, Vt. where he appeared as early as 1777. He immediately took a prominent part in town affairs; as a member of the Committee of Safty; he was obnoxious to the Tories. They sent out threats "That if they could get "Curley Head Moss" in their clutches they would put him where he would lie quiet. The history of his flight in 1777 would make a chapter of romance."
